

ATWIND volunteers

Volunteers are needed for the Around the World in 90 Days' picnic from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Aug. 10. Volunteer for one hour or more. Send name and duty phone via e-mail to Kathy Desy at kathy.desy@malmstrom.af.mil or call 731-3994.

ATWIND is a service's program designed to get servicemembers and families involved in service's activities.

Clinic operations

The Malmstrom Clinic will be open during the 341st Space Wing goal days, Monday and July 30, for acute care appointments only. Patients should note that the clinic will be closed Saturday and July 28. To make an acute care appointment on these days, call 731-4MED. For after-hour care, call the on-call provider at 791-4721.

Olmstead Scholarship Program

The Olmstead Scholarship Program is for line officers who want to attend an overseas university for foreign languages for about two years. Three officers are selected annually for the program. Call the military personnel flight at 731-4136.

Air Force Crossroads Web site

Local employers are being encouraged to use the Crossroads Web site to advertise available positions.

People can also post their resumes so employers can see them. In the Web site, people can see all the jobs available in Great Falls. The Web site's address is www.afcrossroads.com.

Public affairs volunteers

The public affairs office is looking for people to help with the base tour program. People are needed to act as escorts for tours set up by the public affairs office.

The tours are from 9 a.m. to noon every Friday until Labor Day and include the base fire department, the 40th Helicopter Flight, the T-9 LF Trainer and the Malmstrom Museum. This is an opportunity to get involved in the base's community relations and to learn more about the 341st Space Wing. Anyone interested in giving base tours can call public affairs at 731-4050.

Volunteers are also needed to participate in the speaker's bureau program. People are needed to be available to give speeches on various topics throughout the community.

Interested volunteers should contact the public affairs office and say what topics they would be available to speak on. This is another opportunity to get involved with the community, and it looks great as an officer or enlisted performance report bullet.
